

Reos

Reos GIBS Public Dialogue: 18 February 2013, Day 1

	Time	Activity
Registration	07:45
Setting the scene: Provocations	08:30	Welcome Shireen Chengadu Executive Director: Academic Programmes GIBS
	08:45	Introductions from Colleen Magner and Joe McCarron Reos Partners
	09:15	Provocation One: Brian Whittaker, Non-exec Deputy Chairman Jobs Fund The potential and limits of cooperation when stakes are high and trust is low
	09:35	Provocation Two: Professor Adam Habib, Deputy Vice Chancellor of the University of Johannesburg: How do we build trust in the current South African context?
	09:55	Q&A
Morning tea	10:30 - 11:00
Sharing International Experience of working with stuck social issues	11:00 - 11:45	Provocations continued
	11:45 - 12:45	Reos Partners shares examples of dealing with tough social challenges from other countries
		A new strategy for Aboriginal Health (Reos Melbourne)
		Open Contracting: Building a global movement of transparent contracting a project with the World Bank (Reos Cambridge USA)
		Forming a coalition of NGOs (Reos Sao Paulo)
		Using Social Media for Developing Entrepreneurs in Egypt (Reos Oxford)
		PLUK: A platform for social innovation (Reos The Hague)
Scenarios for a way beyond violence in Colombia (Reos Cambridge USA)
Lunch	12:45 - 13:30
Expanding our vision: Learning Journeys	13:30 - 16:00	Participants break into small groups to visit a variety of sites around Johannesburg, including a micro-bakery in Alexandra, a hawker turned entrepreneur, the Berea Fire station and the National Union of Mineworkers.
Afternoon tea	16:00 - 16:15
Highlighting insights	16:15 - 17:15	Return to GIBS: Discussion on what we are learning about what we are working with on high stakes/low trust
Close	17:30	Close
Book launch	17:30 - 18:00	Registration Note: dialogue participants have free entry to the book launch
	18:00 - 18:30	Opening comments from Trevor Manuel, Minister in the Presidency Ministry for National Planning Committee
	18:30 - 19:30	Adam Kahane's presents extracts from new book 'Transformative Scenario Planning – Working Together to Change the Future.' Q&A
	19:30 onwards	Cocktail function

Reos

Reos GIBS Public Dialogue: 19 February 2013, Day 2

	Time	Activity
Arrival	08:00	Coffee and sign in
Identifying what we want to work on	08:30 - 09:30	Group identifies areas to focus on for the day
	09:30 - 10:30	Prototyping areas for potential collaboration
Morning tea	10:30 - 11:00
Mapping our systems	11:00 - 12:30	Working groups session 1
Lunch	12:30 - 13:30
Identifying opportunities for social innovation	13:30 - 14:00	Working groups feedback to wider group the progress of the morning
	14:00 - 15:00	Working groups session 2
Tea	15:00 - 15:30
What are our insights and where are we going?	15:30 - 16:00	Group feedback
	16:00- 16:30	Applying our insights
	17:00	Poem from Dineo Ndlanzi, poet and storyteller
	17:15	Closing comments
Close	17:30	Close